ALHSS ODE

"Parting is such sweet sorrow"
Are the words of the poet true,
Which our hearts now realize
As we must part from you.

Wisdom you have given us
To guide our footsteps well;
Memories of you we'll hold
More dear than words can tell.

Your walls, your grounds, your sunlit rooms,
Your colors of blue and white—
These are things that have helped us
Like a bright and shining light
Through all our years of study,
Of laughter, fun and tears,
These will closely knit our memories
Through our ensuing years.

We salute thee, B.H.S.
And praise be ever thine.
In our hearts you'll always live,
Out of sight, but not of mind . . .

THE LOG OF THE CLASS OF 1961

Our voyage began in September, 1958, when we boarded the GOOD SHIP B.H.S. for a three-year journey to the land of FUTURE. As SOPHOMORES we were registered as third-class passengers and, as such, had a difficult time finding our cabins and adjusting to the bewildering routine of the ship. After the voyage had gotten underway, we were called on deck to elect the ship's officers: Bill McNevin, Captain; Bill Cuff, First Mate; Suzanne Buker, Lady of the Log; Bill McNally, Purser. The first year of our voyage was highlighted by the SOPHOMORE SOCIAL. The music of the Allenaires fitted in beautifully with the theme of the Social, MOON-LIGHT SERENADE. We really "rocked the boat"; everyone had a fabulous time, proving that our Social was a huge success.

In May all good shipmates assembled for the annual MUSIC FESTIVAL presented by the B.H.S. Songbirds, or rather Seagulls, including the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, and the Choir. The Band and the Orchestra offered some excellent music for an evening of pleasure. Our first year was rapidly coming to a close, and we looked forward to our voyage as JUNIORS. In September, 1959, we traveled as second-class passengers and were now well-adjusted to the flawless routine of nautical life. We were not out of port long when a mutiny brought about the election of new officers: Bill McNally, Captain; Lois Morrison, First Mate; Sue Buker, Lady of the Log; Don Miller, Purser.

One of the clubs on board, the Thespians, presented THE DOUBLE DOOR, an exciting mystery in which several of our shipmates displayed superb acting ability.

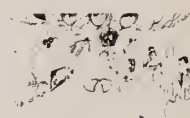

In order to make up a shortage in the PURSERY, we held a sea biscuit sale. To keep the ship sailing smoothly, we added new members to our cheerleading squad. All passengers turned out for the spirited TEACHERS VS. VARSITY basketball game which, although the teachers put up a good fight, the varsity won by a score of 57-51. We were very proud when twelve of our shipmates were initiated into the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY. On April 29 we docked at an exotic island for our big social event of the year, the JUNIOR PROM. The music of Earl Hannafin and his orchestra filled the air indicating that this would certainly be SOME ENCHANTED EVENING.

On our way back to the ship we held our After-Prom-Party at HUGO'S LIGHTHOUSE to put the finishing touches on a never-to-be-forgotten evening. On June 26, upon encountering VACATION ISLAND II, we all received two months' shore leave which we gratefully accepted.

In September, 1960, we again found ourselves on the high seas for the last year of our voyage aboard the GOOD SHIP B. H. S. This year, most of us travelled first-class, except for those who did not have enough credits. Because of a serious mishap on board, we elected officers who were Jimmy Dunn, Captain; Lois Morrison, First Mate; Sue Buker, Lady of the Log; and Don Miller, Purser.

At the start of our voyage, there was a great deal of commotion because of the distribution of class pictures which had been taken on Vacation Island II. In October we all assembled to view a three-act play called "Hay Fever," presented by our famous Thespians.

Our football season ended on November 24, when we played Milton in our annual and colorful Thanksgiving game. Our cheerleaders, with the help of the newly established Pep Club, gave spirited support to our hard-playing shipmates. All shipmates assembled on December 22 to attend the annual Christmas Assembly presented by the Ship's Choir and Glee Clubs. That evening all first-class passengers joined together to celebrate the Christmas season at the Senior Christmas Party. Everyone had a fabulous time, and it was a night that will be long remembered.

On Student Government Day, after a thrilling campaign, we chose a worthy shipmate to represent the GOOD SHIP B. H. S. at the State House. It was attended and enjoyed by all the passengers.

At the winter sports assembly, many of our shipmates were the happy recipients of awards for their athletic activities. On April 7 our Senior Show, which was written, directed, and produced by our first-class shipmates, was presented as the crowning dramatic achievement of the year. At our next event, the Music Festival, the Glee Clubs and Choir did an exceptional job on this, the last school function for the first-class passengers. We really became excited when our yearbooks arrived, and we passed around and signed them. When we held our Senior Reception many of us felt that it was the most beautiful event shipside. It was truly a wonderful evening to climax our three years aboard the GOOD SHIP B. H. S.

As the Spring Awards assembly came around, we realized with mixed emotions that a few days of our voyage remained. At this assembly many of our outstanding shipmates were honored with awards for their scholastic and athletic achievements.

On June 11 we gathered at Hollis Field for the graduation exercises of the Class of 1961. We were gay, but at the same time saddened, for we were thinking of all the wonderful events and people that we were leaving behind on the GOOD SHIP B. H. S. As we disembarked, all turned to take one last look at the GOOD SHIP B. H. S. which had so faithfully watched over us and guided us on our three-year journey to the Island of the Future.

1961 Class Will Committee

PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1961

Class Reunion on Venus

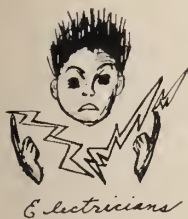

Flash: "B. H. S. Class of '61 to hold twenty-fifth reunion on Venus this week." Yes, that's what the headline read on June 17, 1986, and today is the big day. Meteorologist W. Zablosky has predicted a beautiful week. Everyone has gathered at the Hollis Rocket Terminal where the old wooden bleachers once were. The air is full of excitement as we are anxiously waiting to board our rocket, and there is a great deal of activity going on around us. Terry Soley is very busy at his doughnut stand for everyone is stocking up for the trip ahead; even J. Adams, the baggage truck driver, can be seen nibbling one of Soley's doughnuts.

Stepping out of a taxi is the now famous actress C. Moore; she is surrounded by photographers and reporters including M. Caron and F. Kibble. Kay Peckham and D. Archibald are on hand to maintain order. There seems to be a slight delay, for H. Daley is repairing the engine. In our spare time we will follow service men D. McInness, H. Cleveland, and E. Ashton to R. Foss's Canteen. Inside "The Braintree 5"—C. Streiferd. Chuck Morrison. N. Hourihan, V. Kosmo—are playing to the exotic singing of D. Shaw. Fitzy is making banana boat sundaes for J. Hurney, R. Caldwell and Robert Migliorini. Little Hoot Gibson, M. Sullivan, C. Woodward, L. Paty, and G. Hill, all navy men, are playing cards in one corner. The music is interrupted when stewardesses J. Murphy, Bunny Foley, Di Clancy, and D. Walker come to tell us that the rockets are about to blast off. At the end of the field we see D. Pettengill driving a bus load of teachers, who have just arrived from a teachers' convention, to the rockets.

Stewardesses A. Curreri and C. Joyce are leading teachers S. Allard, N. Greene, J. Whalen, C. Mischler, N. Borden, C. Bigony, P. Lyons, A. DeMarco, W. Hedlund, A. Kelvie, R. Ohman, M. Shields, P. Cass, S. Kincaid, R. Reera, and P. E. Smith to rocket number one. Since our class is so large, it is necessary to employ several rockets. The first rocket is staffed by pilots A. Burrell and K. Webster; engineers J. Sheehan, S. O'Connell, W. Lofgren, J. Kennedy Jr., and A. Sullivan; electricians Butch Adams and M. Monti; hostesses J. Iannuzzi and J. Lutz; dietitians S. Davis and B. Dunbar. Also on its staff are Father Haviland, Sister Centorino, and Rev. Walker. The medical staff consists of Ray Baker, M.D., medical secretaries R. Lauria and Ducky Trescott, nurses Betsy Campana, J. Brayton, J. McLennan, Jo MacLaughlin, J. Murray, and Dutchie Empey, R. Landry, D.M.D., and his assistants J. Kincade and P. Madden.

—"The pause that refreshes," compliments of W. MacCormick, R. Calman, Inc. Rocket number two is staffed by pilots Porky Knowles and D. Pacheco; engineers R. Shire, R. Guarino, R. Coletti, R. Maguire, and A. MacDonald; and electrician Squeaky Smith. Also on the staff are Father Skinner and Rev. Johnson. The medical staff consists of V. Richardson, M.D.; medical secretaries B. Church and N. Martin; nurses C. Morrison, Chops Olson, E. Rouleau, J. Nightingale, L. Morison, and M. Todesca; Soapy Borax, D.M.D., and his assistant J. Barnes. C. Pollack, and Tonto Nelson.

—"Another pause that refreshes," compliments of R. Keniston, J. Smith and Co. The third rocket is staffed by—"oops" the first rocket just took off. As we were saying, the staff consists of pilots G. Sirois and T. Hingston; engineers R. Hofferty, P. Aalto, W. Frazier, C. Lodi, and D. MacKay; electricians C. White; hostesses G. Trant and P. Willson. Also on the staff is Chaplain Batchelder and Rev. Corkum III. The medical staff consists of W. Barnes, M.D.; medical secretaries C. Johnson and "O My Gracious" Marshall; nurses S. Buker, D. Wick, M. Tisdale, M. Lonergan, P. Bishop, and J. Bailey. Since everyone is boarded, we are nearly ready to blast off. Everything has been checked and rechecked. The rockets have been put into the capable hands of several mechanics, including W. Belcher, K. Smith and R. Fitch. We are waiting for W. Henry, now a veterinarian, who ran back to get his Beasley, the B. H. S. mascot.

Only seconds ago we heard the blast off of the second rocket, now we hear the count down on the last. —5—4—3—2—1—0 blast off!

On all three rockets, secretaries Lee MacKenzie, C. Movalli, J. Blowers, N. Better, M. Bergonzie, and Half Pint Linscott are passing out informative pamphlets explaining the structure of the rocket and giving credit to those responsible for the finished product. They have been put together through the efforts of writers S. Grubis, L. Hamilton and P. McVay; printers W. Potter, R. Hardy, R. Hasty, R. Neill, and S. Smith; publisher Spade Berman; typists S. Brennan and B. Mulligan; secretaries L. McKeough, Goody Goodwin, A. Modestino, J. Nickerson and J. Wilken. They have been sponsored by businessman M. Gilcreast, Stretch Deehan's Insurance Co., M. Leo, and B. Peckham, jeweler.

An excellent crew of draftsmen, Red Tzamos, L. Carifio, Ted Williams, R. Haskins, E. Rose, B. Mortimer, and J. Morello, drew up the plans of the rocket, and electrical engineers C. Doran, W. Irving, and K. Congdon planned the wiring. L. Fornell, M. Bernabeo, and A. Drysdale designed the interior, while Skip Dauphinais and R. Tapper did the actual construction work. Many of the pamphlets deal with the life and work of G. Mitchell, the astronautical engineer who designed the rockets. He was assisted by R. Russell, C. Pickett, Jim Murphy, R. Miller, and R. Elliott. "Did you bring La Rocket Cafe?" asks Frogman R. Bradley. "No!" Bang! Bang! "Anyone else forget their La Rocket Cafe?"

Inside the rocket there is a great deal of activity going on, for several of the teachers are having their hair set for all the festivities to come. L. Tedesco is giving L. Hendrickson a poppie, J. Pecoraro is cutting C. Reed's hair in a pixie, G. Mahon is giving J. Pearson a bouffant, B. Califano is having a French twist done by M. Bonvie, and P. Holbrook is arranging G. MacDonald's hair in a beehive.

No rocket could be complete without a TV room. Several secretaries, J. Moline, P. Williams, S. Hammond, S. Spinney, and M. DiCarlo are watching Michael Vella's sports show. He is interviewing "Wild Bill" Elliott, pro ball player. Now for a station break—There's "Hot head" Fontana with his head in an oil burner demonstrating to housewives B. Salters and J. Foster the fine texture of the soot in his oil burners. —Back to the show. P. Vecchione, D. Hannon, R. Cox and J. Rakauskas, pro ball players, are now being interviewed. —Time out for another entertaining commercial! —Salesman R. Bonvie is trying to put across the point that Flak-o makes sheets the B-B-Beddiest. Housewives M. LaTanzi, and J. Farina, are listening attentively at this point. —Back to the interviewing of that celebrated golf pro J. Dizel. —Let's pause for station identification! This is station B.H.S. Blink. Blink — "Say there, D. Miller, with the telescope, are you an astronomer?" "No. I'm a peeping Tom and a scientist on the side." "Do you chew Smiceroy?" "No!" —Back to the show.

Commander J. Klink just clanked by with his Navy detachment. Roll call: Birdie Purdy, T. Thevenin, A. O'Rourke, Nellie Field, Marty Mardirosian, D. Linscott, W. McCarty, W. Gill, R. Garland, and W. Ludlow. "All present and accounted for? If not raise your right hand." —Guess what—another commercial—Big Barber Bing Neal is expounding on "Neal's Hair Tonic." W. Thorn's amazing chemical concoction. —Now stay tuned to R. Nagle and Hawaiian Eylelash. At this point G. Ghiorse, who is studying for postgraduate exams, yells, "Turn that infernal racket off!" So much for TV; let's join secretaries D. Kurtzis, J. Nelson, B. Saunders, G. Wing, and B. Frazier who are keeping an account of the trip to send to their friends back home.

Radio operator R. Cavan announces that we are coming to a space station which has grown into a modern community. D. Olson is responsible for the modernistic structure. Dirty and Clean Black take excellent care of the ten-foot square community park near a small shopping center. Secretaries A. Darche, C. Hobart, K. Imlay, and P. Dexter are shopping for souvenirs in J. Schrader's five and dime store. They have stopped to talk to sales clerks C. Smith, S. Seppala, and D. Bohlken, and sales manager K. Brady. Next door is Tiger Elliott's Beauty Salon; she has J. Zampine, A. Graziano, and F. Hayden butchering heads for her. Their victims are office workers L. Quaglia, J. Kelley, and J. MacLane.

"Hold on to your head. I mean hat, and let's go."

The next stop is the new schoolhouse which covers nursery through high school. A. Forbes' Nursery classroom is well stocked with stuffed animals donated by D. Woodbury, wildlife manager. Next in line is K. Shelley's kindergarten, whose art supplies have been given courtesy of G. Anderson's Art Supply Co. The teaching staff of the elementary grades includes Dotty Delpapa, S. Fall, B. Morley, Ming Toi Leban, M. Silowan and S. Zoda. We catch the high school teachers J. Hutchinson, E. Charles, and A. Teevan and even the physical education instructor B. Cook watching S. Pimentel painting her famous portraits.

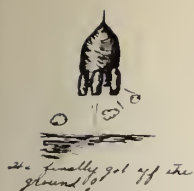

The rockets are about ready to leave for Venus. Everyone ready? Let's go. After a few hours Venus looms into sight. We circle it to get a "bird's eye view" of the surroundings we'll be in for the next few days. Secretaries S. Nash, N. O'Neil, H. Burke, K. Robins, and M. Greenan, with their noses pressed against the window, see forestry men D. Ward, A. Howe, W. Holmes, B. Bent, and Chink Whitehouse chasing driving instructor D. Richards, after her student M. Kelley knocked down one of the few trees there. R. Workman, game warden, is helping them along with some buckshot in the Beeee-hind. All the confusion has outdoor writer, W. Purdy, quite perturbed.

As we descend into the ocean, (we missed our target!) we see W. MacNevin wrestling with a squid while plumber D. Argentine fixes a leak in his suit. We finally reached land with the help of R. Otis and D. Graziano's apparatus and that great weight-lifter, A. Chase. Before doing anything else, everyone brings their wet clothes to J. Young's Chinese Laundry. Despite our slight error in navigation, we are on time for the fashion show, the first event of the week. While we marvel at the gaily decorated platform by P. Morcom, the first model waddles out. C. Cain is wearing a root-beer barrel of the finest plywood, designed by P. Landry, and her bubble-cut by J. King has just broken. The next model is F. Serra wearing a J. Gallagher original (original what, we dare not say). Her locks have been arranged by Brown-Eyes Bierman. Last, but by no means least, S. Symmes glides out on a banana peel. She is wearing a balloon dress by P. Bond. (No smoking, please). Her wispy ends have been plastered down by Cheech Puliafico.

All this time B. Regan and P. Jones have been sketching the outfits for the Venus Journal. Of course, there was the usual chorus of whistlers, some of whom were servicemen, J. E. Sullivan, Little Richard Mahler, J. Walgreen and Mike Hemingway. Buyers C. Gardener and D. Reed are seriously thinking of purchasing some of these outfits for their stores. As the crowd is dispersing, nurse A. Reardon bustles in to doctor the injured model. "Look, Ma, no teeth." compliments of Battistini's tooth paste (better use L. Seidler's instead.) Several bookkeepers, Freak Vitagliano, Puddles Thomas, Crunch Gruney, and stenographers, Lily Smith, J. O'Connell, and Beaver Dixon have decided to tour the ultra-modern hospital. Jo Coletti, Jo Kaukola and Moo McKay are laboratory technicians here, while K. Hjelm works in the laboratory as a biologist along with Frog Mattie, a medical research man. On the staff is pediatrician S. Samaha, physical therapist P. Brackett and children's nurse N. Bates. At the same time engineer P. West, auto mechanic J. Mavilia, C.P.A. Art Sward, and I.B.M. mechanic R. Mitchelson tour the Venus courtroom and watch court in session.

W. McNally is defending used car salesman, R. Williams, who was accused of selling a car with full ashtrays, and in another case G. Sullivan is defending M. Salvucci, a telephone operator, who is accused of crossing wires. The court secretaries are Terry LeGere, S. Regan and Gus Lindquist.

The days pass quickly and soon it's the day of the big "reunion picnic." the bang-up finish of the week. With our thinking men, mathematicians Biscuit Bissett, Hoppy Hopkins and electronic engineers, W. Whittam, Art Cusick, thinking up things to do, it's bound to be fun. First on the agenda is a stimulating lecture on picket lines to Fore River worker, K. Marinella. Machinists Teddy Alger, Wilbur Whipple, Richard Migliorini and J. Ramos will give a demonstration on the art of screwing a screw with a screw driver. "Hanson the Ham" (radio operator, that is) is spinning platters to add to the excitement. Our business section is really swinging we finally got off the ground!

Leak is scarce!

We missed our target!

as A. Rautenberg and C. O'Brien do the Charleston, Broccoli Brock and J. Brown do the Black Bottom. M. and M. Pinola do the Mirror Dance, and M. Nelson, Mal Buckley and J. Furlong—what do you call that they're doing? Well, they can't last much longer than a few dances more, so let's go down by the pool. Klinky Hansen, now a professional grappler, Ted McLaughlin, mechanic. E. Butterfield and C. Cahoon, office workers, and J. Griffiths, engineer, are having a wet water fight. A group of accountants, R. Smith, J. Moore, A. Spadea, Nikki Mattia and J. Butkuss, lounging nearby are getting sprayed. Behind the pool a softball game is going on. The pitcher, engineer B. J. Johnson, seems to think he is bowling, while machinist F. Foley is using the bat as a golf club. The confused catcher is serviceman J. W. Sullivan. Engineer R. LaPlante is keeping score, so far 0-0. Secretaries L. Lemon, Ellie Harrington, H. Raymond, P. McIntyre and E. Swam are going wild with the tossed salad. (They took it literally and now it's all over the table).

Machinists R. Bourque, F. Mollins, R. Conlong, and E. Frazier are in the middle of a three-legged race when the dinner bell sounds. It's quite evident that they weren't the first to arrive for lunch. At one table we find engineers H. Thorne, R. Goodwin, A. Logan, D. Lorusso, W. Cuff and W. Galebach discussing their business over a plate of cold cuts. Bookworms Bat Masterman, F. Pendergast and M. Graziano are wrapped up in their studies for final exams—they are taking post-graduate work. A hint about Mr. X of the new WNES color radio, compliments of N. Kellaway, Nat Hope, and Kitten McClelland of I.B.M., Inc. It was not Mr. but a Miss! Our own J. MacGillivray, clerical worker. Bookkeepers Glo Fiorentino, S. Frazier, L. Collins, and E. Ladd are acting as waitresses for the Picnic. Oops! One of them just slipped and spilled a bowl of punch over secretaries J. Newman, J. Morgan, J. Liberto and B. DeBeradinis. So it was a big bowl of punch! Oops! There goes another rubber tree plant, taking with it machinists P. Lennon, J. South, and Buth Allison. Servicemen J. Narcotta, A. Olson, and P. Sullivan, have built a camp fire and everyone is gathering around it. S. Thompson, D. Wadleigh, and J. Bull, of the women's service, are sitting on a log near the fire. Social workers J. Dunn and Roby Barrett are leading all in the B.H.S. Alma Mater. The atmosphere grows solemn, as each one remembers his three unforgettable years at B.H.S. The memories are faded, but still live in the hearts of each and all. For a while we have turned back the clock; but, as all good things must end, so ends the twenty-fifth reunion of the Class of 1961.

ADMINISTRATION

RALPH W. PROCTOR

Superintendent

For thirteen years head of the Braintree Public Schools, Superintendent Ralph W. Proctor brings to his position many years of experience as teacher and principal. Skilled in coping with problems of teachers and students alike, Mr. Proctor shows a deep understanding of the needs of our schools and strives ever to broaden the educational opportunities of the youth of Braintree.

WALTER K. HJELM

Principal

"Get to know the people you live with, work with, and meet in everyday life as they know themselves" is the sincere desire of Principal Walter K. Hjelm in his daily contacts with both teachers and pupils at Braintree High School. A friendly understanding and a willingness to expedite are two of the keys to successful administration.

ARIGO L. LA TANZI

Administrative Assistant

Former English teacher and football coach at Braintree High School, Mr. La Tanzi is now administrative assistant in charge of school transportation and coordinator of the junior high program. He also heads the various school department committees, working in close cooperation with Mr. Proctor. His several years of teaching experience, coupled with his sense of fair play as a coach, are valuable assets in his contacts between the various public schools within the Town of Braintree.

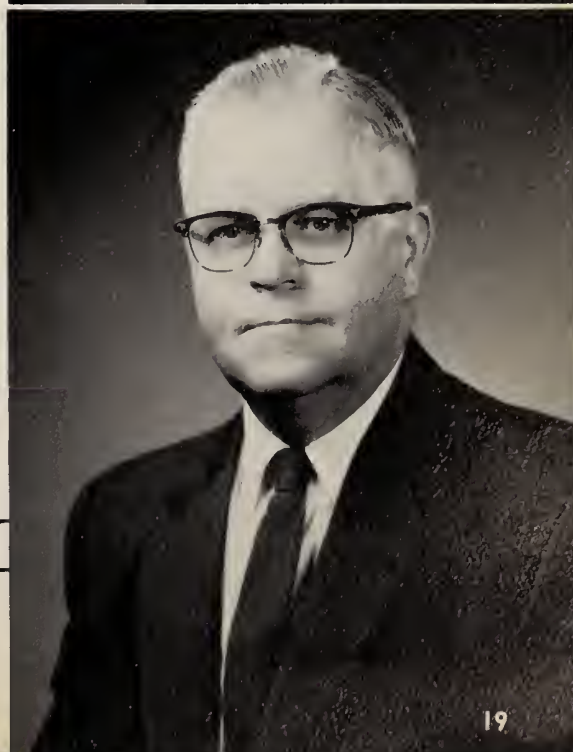

RAYMOND L. STRANGFORD

G. KENNETH ROGERS

Assistant Principals

Assistant Principals Raymond L. Strangford and G. Kenneth Rogers, Braintree High School trouble-shooters deluxe, devote their every effort to the establishment of law and order within our portals. "The power of discipline is to silence, not to confute."

MILDRED B. AHLGREN, Business. If I could only impress upon you the importance of this. "Business is the salt of life."

VERNE L. BIXBY

Science

Just substitute these values in the formula and crank it out.

"What art was to the ancient world, science is to the modern."

FREDERICK P. BOUSSY

Science

It's a chemical reaction. "Men love to wonder and that is the seed of our science."

MARJORIE BRIZZOLARA

English

Let a word to the wise be sufficient.

"Silence—a conversation with an Englishman."

ROBERT G. BRUCE

Social Studies

Anyone who isn't here, please raise his hand.

"History is only a confused heap of facts."

JENNIE C. BURLING

School Nurse

Look it up in the dictionary, girls.

"Health and intellect are the two blessings of life."

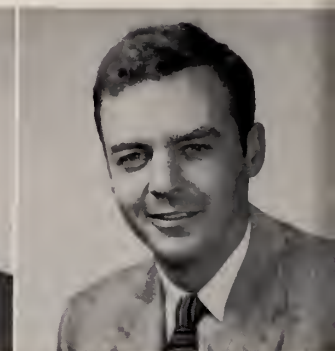

CHARLES T. CAPUTO

Spanish, French

Bonjour, monsieur.

"Language is a city to the building of which every human being brought a stone."

JAMES J. CONNOLLY

Applied Drawing

Take it easy, boys.

"Nothing can come out of an artist that is not in the man."

KATHLEEN W. CAMPBELL

Secretary

Honestly!

"Business is business."

HENRY K. DOOLEY

Mathematics

That's most important.

"Math is a universal language."

KATHLEEN C. DOWNEY

English

Isn't that wonderful?

"That which befits us is cheerfulness and courage."

EDWARD B. DUNNE

English

All right, boys.

"He who has mastered English is educated."

KENNETH F. CUSTY, Industrial Arts. Get to work. "Pray to God and ply the hammer."

VIOLA P. EVANS

Business

All you have to do is live long enough and all your sins will catch up with you. "Business today consists in persuading crowds."

WILLIAM FILENE JR.

American History

I want to see action. "History is but the unrolled scroll of prophecy."

WILLIAM J. FOLEY

Social Studies

You're out! "History teaches everything even the future."

RUTH E. FOX, Home Economics. Girls . . . "Quicker than you can cook asparagus."

PALMA R. GRAVEL

Business

O.K., everyone in his seat." "The business of America is business."

LOUIS A. GEORGE, JR.

Business—Social Studies

OK; quiet down. "History teaches everything, even the future."

ELLA M. GERRISH

Librarian

Take a book home over vacation. "Books are a finer world within the world."

RICHARD H. HAINES

Business

You must remember this. "Business is other people's money."

MARY C. HALLORAN

English

I want good results on this test. "Language, as well as speech, was the immediate gift of God."

ARTHUR P. HAUCK

Instrumental Music

Get on tune boys, we haven't much time. "So musical a discord, such sweet thunder."

RUTH J. HUME

Art

Please take the black stick out of the white paint. "Art is difficult and its reward is transient."

JOHN A. HURSTAK

Science

For homework tonight. "Science is like virtue, its own exceeding great reward."

EULA I. HUTCHINS, Social Studies. The perfect student would not ridicule a fellow classmate, whereas, the non-perfect student hasn't the right. "As we read history we make history."

MARILYN G. INGRAM, Physical Education. "Push on—keep moving." Whoever is not here, raise her hand, please!

G. VINTON JONES

Guidance

I would suggest.

"To profit from good advice requires more wisdom than to give it."

JADY E. JUDY

Guidance

Let's solve your problem.

"He that will not be counselled cannot easily be helped."

WALTER J. KANE

Mathematics

Don't I know it!

"He who knows math is learned."

JEAN E. KEAY

Business

When in doubt, write it out.

"With a pen and a pencil we're learning to say, nothing more, cleverly, every day."

ROBERT E. KINGSBURY

Social Studies

Tuck in that shirt!

"Social studies helps the blind to see."

GERALD E. LASHLEY

Mathematics

Just as easy as fallin' off a log.

"I will be brief."

JOHN C. LAX

Industrial Arts

Return your tools!

"Nothing is achieved before it is thoroughly attempted."

PHILIP L. KLIMAN

Industrial Arts

Report to the machine shop at 2:15.

"A teacher should be sparing of his smile."

MAE L. LINDSAY

Vocal Music

Sure, you can do it!

"Where words fail, music speaks."

JOHN S. MACKENZIE

Physical Education

O. K., boys, line up.

"He marks—not that you won or lost—but how you played the game."

ESTHER C. MATHESON

Home Instruction

Oh, dear!

"Everybody who is incapable of learning has taken to teaching."

JOHN W. LE ROY JR., Social Studies. You mortals have your problems. "The distant Trojans never injured me."

JOAN M. MATHESON

English

Be specific!

"We shall never understand one another until we reduce the language to seven words."

JOHN J. McDERMOTT

Industrial Arts

Take care of that printing press.

"All things are won by diligence."

STEPHANIE McKAY

English

I am so angry.

"The foundation of every state is the education of its youth."

JESSICA MORRIS, English. We will now pass in our homework. "God save the king, that is lord of this language."

GEORGE MUELLER, JR.

Business

Clear and concise.

"Talk of nothing but business, and dispatch that business quickly."

JOHN NEWELL, JR.

Mechanical Drawing

Less talk and more work.

"Have faith in God."

EDWARD R. OAKMAN

Social Studies, Guidance

Let's look at your records.

"Nowhere a man so busy as he."

VIRGINIA C. OLSON

Social Studies

Famous first words—Now, checking on attendance...

"History is philosophy teaching by examples."

JOHN PALTSITS

Industrial Arts, Head

Do you understand that?

"If you have great talents, industry will improve them; if you have but moderate abilities, industry will supply their deficiencies."

EDNA M. PARKER

Business

Come and sign the anecdotal list, please.

"Business? That's very simple—it's other people's money."

JOHN M. PEARSON

Science

Run, Run, Run...

"Science when well digested is nothing but good sense and reason."

ALTON C. PERRY

Mathematics, Head

You girls ought to go on that show "Keep Talking."

"There is no royal road to Geometry."

G. ROSALIND PINEL, Science, Guidance. Pass your papers to the front. "Science is organized knowledge."

Searchers in the Sea

Which way to Norway?

I hear there are pearls in fishheads.

It's just right for our bathtubs.

Big brother is watching.

"I think this is the way he did it."

The candid camera.

"We should have taken Problems of Democracy."

"We never get any credit."

CAMPUS

Braintree boy makes good.

"They always want an outside line."

"I hope she gave me two sandwiches."

The Halls of Ivy.

ON

"This is the life."

A den of busy beavers.

"Talent like this should be hidden!"

"Isn't that cute."

"This is the latest style."

"Two kooks with a coke!"

"Somebody's out cold."

"Remember when."

"The natives are restless tonight!"

"The lineup."

"That's an awful lot of toes."

"This must be double exposure."

"What's the joke?"

"You look happy, Nancy."

OFF CAMPUS SHOTS

"You look surprised, Grace!"

"Who are you looking at, Lois?"

"Someone's getting a sunburn!"

"Is everyone having a good time?"

"Chow time."

"Is it that funny, Ruth?"

"Nobody breathe."

"Penny, you look mad."

"Do you two always sleep on the roof?"

1960

"He has a better car now."

"Is this really how we looked when we were kids?"

What the mirror in the girls' room sees in the morning!

A whole lot of studying going on!

I hope I used the correct acid!
What does "con" mean?

Gee, I can't tell the difference.
